

Deaf Can:Do

Adelaide Fringe 2019 Auslan Interpreted shows

Ballroom Dance Workshops

Always wanted to learn to Ballroom Dance? Then here's your chance! Come along and learn the basics of Social Ballroom Dance to two popular dance styles, Waltz and Rumba.

Feb 23, 1:30pm & Mar 9, 1:30pm

1900-Lisa-Skye

Before Tinder, how did straight guys hassle ladies? Skye worked for a phone dating agency in the early 2000s.

Feb 17, 7:00pm

International Women's Day March

The International Women's Day March is an annual event celebrating the South Australian feminist movement. The event engages people from diverse backgrounds and communities.

Mar 8, 5:30pm

Neo: I'm in Love With Art

Love is in the air at the first after-hours Neo teen-exclusive party of 2019 as we celebrate the reopening of the Elder Wing of Australian Art at the Art Gallery of South Australia.

Feb 16, 6:00pm

FRINGE
TALK
SHOW

Fringe Talk Show

A conversation with AFL legend, acclaimed contemporary Indigenous artist and Aboriginal activist, Gavin Wanganeen.

Feb 17, 2:30pm

Judith Lucy vs Men

Judith Lucy is single again...and 50. She recently reflected on her entire history with men and concluded that maybe it was time to shut up shop.

Feb 27, 7:00pm

Hans: Like A German

Fresh from conquering stages and screens around the globe, international superstar Hans is back in his adopted hometown with an accordion-pumping, foot-stomping, glittering blitzkrieg of cabaret backed by a huge seven piece band!

Mar 7, 6:30pm

For tickets and venues go to adelaidefringe.com.au

Deaf Can:Do

Adelaide Fringe 2019 Auslan Interpreted shows

Rouge

Winner of Best Circus & Physical Theatre at the 2018 Adelaide Fringe Weeklies, with sold out shows and rave reviews across the board, Rouge returns in 2019.

Mar 3, 8:00pm

The Scientific Bubble Show

Marty McBubble will amaze you with his incredible bubble creations and the scientific wonders that make them possible.

Mar 16, 2:00pm

Discharged! A Nursing Cabaret

Following the smash hit Triage A Nursing Cabaret, DISCHARGED is here to translate! Exploring the female dominated profession of nursing & how nurses have changed women's rights & modern medicine as we know it!

Mar 15, 6:00pm

Tindo Utpurdee, Sunset Ceremony

To officially open the 2019 Adelaide Fringe everyone is invited to this significant Sunset Ceremony to recognise the living culture of the First Nations and to pay respect to the spirit of the land.

Feb 15, 8:00pm

Aaand Now For MORE Kiddo Kaos!

A crazy mash of absurd improvised games, driven by junior conspirators' live suggestions. Each unique show stuffed with hilarious characters and LOTS of daft jokes.

Feb 16, 17, 2:00pm

Did You Hear What I Saw?

Tom and Tom have been best friends for 9,855 days and counting. They've walked miles through blizzards, run amok in city streets and been superheroes of the playground.

Feb 16, 17, 3:20pm

Tom GK: Hearing Loss, The Musical!

Are you pretending you're not losing your hearing? Six years ago Tom GK had his dream job: reviewing Bob Dylan, Foo Fighters, Nick Cave and more for a national paper. The only problem was his hearing was rapidly deteriorating.

Feb 17, 7:00pm

For tickets and venues go to adelaidefringe.com.au